New Year Predictions

By the year 2026, I will be graduated from grade 12 and my life will be different. I want to be in a college in the Philippines to get a business degree, so it can lead me to a path of success. I also want to learn how to code so I can help people. I also will make some money at least $100,000/year and I will use that money to help the world. If I don't graduate, then I will work harder next time to graduate from school and get to college. I will have an ecofriendly car that will cause the least pollution in the world, because global warming is not a joke that people made up; it is a serious problem, and we should help prevent it. That is my prediction that I hope is true because it sounds like a good future and my family would proud of me. But, only time can tell...

New Year Predictions

By the year 2026 I'll be graduated from grade 12 and then, life is real. I'll apply to a job, well let's back that up a bit—I'll be in college or university. I want to be an interior designer. Before that I need to apply to a college. The good thing is my brother said if you're single for your whole life you will live longer so good for me! I wish this happens and I MIGHT get a car. My dream car is a Jeep white or black or a truck or a car. I want to buy or build a house; I'll design it myself so I'll probably build a house. My prediction is now in place so we can see what awaits.

Layla Walker

Liam Delhr

New Year Predictions

By the year of 2026, I would graduate and be 17. I would be old enough to know what one times one is so that makes me smart. I will be old enough to get a high paying job, I think, so it will be very crazy. Flying hover boards, that's not the craziest thing, everything fly's, even robots. This is crazy! Oh, I forgot to tell you about robots. They will take over the work world; it was weird—it was not like 2020 with masks and Covid-19. There is a thing called cowed. It is when you turn into a cow. My prediction is locked in and I can't tell you now, but it might be right. I can't predict the future!

Ethan Swallow
Grade 6
Kipling School

Heinzein Rayray
Grade 3D
MacLeod School

New Year Predictions

My New Year's prediction is Covid-19 will still be going for a long time.

My other New Year's prediction is that we will get lots of snow.

Another New Year's prediction is that it will be a good skidooning year.

My last New Year's prediction is we will play lots of hockey at the rink.

New Year Predictions

My predictions for the New Year are...
 1. Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba will go Conservative in the next election that will happen because Trudeau will do something stupid!
 2. School will go online again (I hope not though).
 3. Covid-19 will still be strong in Saskatchewan and everyone in Saskatchewan will be shopping in Manitoba because they will have no cases.
*Owen Gray

New Year Predictions

I think hockey will come back.
*Cassius Towler
 Grade 2S
 MacLeod School*

Predictions for 2021

I wonder how 2021 is gonna end up? My name is Bentley Hebert. I predict that Moosomin will be a city. It will just be a little city though. What else? There will have to be four schools, four hockey rinks and four grocery stores. It's going to be a great year!
*Bentley
 Grade 3D
 MacLeod School*

New Year Predictions

By the year 2026, I will have graduated from grade 12, and then life really begins. I will probably go to college or university for an interior designer, but you never know where life will take me. I will probably have a vehicle I want by then, like a Dodge Ram truck or a black Jeep Wrangler car. During college, I will probably have a big open apartment with big, big windows and I would want pets to be allowed in the apartment complex because I would have one or two dogs. I would probably have a roommate. My prediction is now in place, so we can see what awaits.
*Makenna Box

During college, I will probably have a big open apartment with big, big windows and I would want pets to be allowed in the apartment complex because I would have one or two dogs. I would probably have a roommate. My prediction is now in place, so we can see what awaits.
